SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

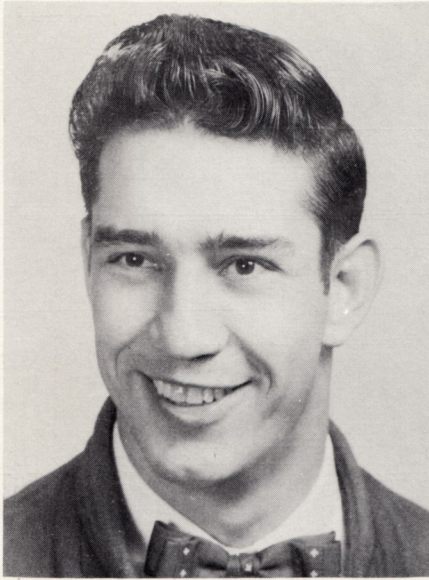

L. M. Sullivan

Schools, as we know them, are peculiar to countries of the world respecting the worth of the individual. A major aim then of schools should be individualism. Individual achievements and failures are personal things. We rise or fall by our own merits. Students of this school have given good personal account of their years spent at Kremlin. May all do as well in the future. Application is still 90% of education and we need only to try, to succeed.
