TERMINAL ELEVATORS

Enid, Oklahoma

Total Capacity: 33,750,000

We have come to this conclusion after much thoughtful consideration: That to keep our wheat in good condition, it will require the co-operation of our Farmers, our local Elevator Men and our Terminal Elevators.

We, as farmers, should produce approved varieties of the very best type hard wheat and not harvest when wet. We, as local elevator men, should take the very best care of this good wheat and make it better than when received. We, as terminals, should be able to still improve the quality and deliver on contract the very best wheat that can be produced.

GRIND YOUR No. 39
COFFEE
AT HOME.

It will pay you well to keep a small coffee-mill in your kitchen and grind your coffee just as you use it—one mess at a time. Coffee should not be ground until the coffee-pot is ready to receive it. Coffee will lose more of its strength and aroma in one hour after being ground than in six months before being ground. So long as Ariosa remains in the whole berry, our glazing, composed of choice eggs and pure confectioners' A sugar, closes the pores of the coffee, and thereby all the original strength and aroma are retained. Ariosa Coffee has, during 25 years, set the standard for all other roasted coffees. So true is this, that other manufacturers in recommending their goods, have known no higher praise than to say: "It's just as good as Arbuckles'."

ARBUCKLE BROS.,
NEW YORK CITY.

THIS IS ONE OF A SERIES OF FIFTY (50) CARDS GIVING A PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES AND TERRITORIES.

INDIAN TERRITORY AND OKLAHOMA.

THE Indian Territory was a part of the Louisiana Purchase from France, in 1803, and at that time the present use of this region was suggested by President Jefferson "to give establishment in it to the Indians of the eastern side of the Mississippi in exchange for their present country." President Monroe, in 1824, deploring the evils growing out of the dwelling of the Indians in the Gulf States, their rapid degradation, bloody feuds and the frequent conflicts between the State and National Jurisdictions, recommended that the tribes should be moved beyond the Mississippi. In 1830, during Jackson's administration, Congress authorized their transfer to the unorganized part of the Louisiana purchase, including the Indian Territory. Here they were established on tracts proportionate to the size of each tribe, with titles vested in them and ample protection. Since then, however, Kansas has been wrested from them, and for ten years the rising tides of colonization have beaten against this domain of the Indian Territory. Before the Secession War, the civilized tribes were wealthy and prosperous, with large farms and plantations and a lucrative trade with the Southern cities; but during the war thousands of the Indians enlisted and fought in the Federal and Confederate armies, and at its close the tribes were reduced to poverty. Since that time they have advanced notably in prosperity and civilization, and now form large farming communities.

Arbuckle Brothers Coffee had small cards that came with their coffee packages. The series of 50 cards gave a pictorial history of the USA. H Holden made a nice bronze "Arbuckle High" maquette in 2000 (Myron Toews owns one!)
